FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Weather causes cancellation of OCC Chapel presentation by Joni Eareckson Tada College Heights Christian Church Disability Expo is still on

WHAT: The Ozark Christian College Chapel visit planned by Joni Eareckson Tada has been cancelled because of the hazardous travel conditions throughout the country. While she will no longer be speaking at OCC chapel tomorrow, she will still be a part of the Disability Expo via video presentation this weekend. Steve Bundy, vice president of Joni and Friends, will still be there in person, as well as the other scheduled guests.

WHEN: Saturday, Feb. 5
Disability Expo begins at 9 a.m.
Evening session with video presentation begins at 6:30 p.m.

WHERE: College Heights Christian Church
4311 East Newman Rd.
Joplin, Mo.

DETAILS: While the chapel visit has been cancelled, Ozark Christian College will still be offering the new academic course in conjunction with Joni and Friends, "A Theology of Suffering and Disability."

More information about Joni and Friends is available online at www.joniandfriends.org. Information about the Disability Expo is available online at www.chchurch.org.
